For Mandatory Reporters:

STEP 2. Inform the Complainant about on-campus and off-campus resources and your duty to provide notice to the Title IX Coordinator of sexual misconduct offenses and campus police for all other crimes.

As a Mandatory Reporter (Official with Authority (OWA), Mandated Reporter (MR) and/or Campus Security Authority (CSA)), you are not an “intake officer” and should not investigate the report. In other words, your role is to report the matter to the Title IX Coordinator and/or campus police, not to try to resolve the matter yourself.

As an OWA and/or Mandated Reporter (Title IX), you have a duty to promptly report sexual misconduct incidents that you know of, or think you know, to the Office of Title IX and Clery Compliance:

Reportable Sexual Misconduct Offenses Includes:
Gender-Based Discrimination	Gender-Based Harassment: Hostile Environment Quid Pro Quo Retaliation	Sexual Violence: Dating Violence Domestic Violence Sexual Assaults (fondling, rape) Stalking
Gender-Based Harassment: Bully Coercion Hazing Intimidation Sexual Exploitation

When a Mandatory Reporter believes that an individual may be about to report an alleged act of sexual misconduct (including sexual violence), or an individual already has done so, the OWA/MR/CSA should take prompt steps to advise the individual that the university will maintain the privacy of the information provided. However, they should also advise that as OWAs/MRs/CSAs they cannot maintain complete confidentiality and that they are required to report the alleged conduct to the Title IX Coordinator and to communicate the names of the parties involved, if known.

Specifically, as a CSA (Clery Act), you have a duty to report specific criminal offenses, which includes offenses within the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), for which the university is required to disclose statistics in the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report:

Reportable Clery Crimes:
Report to Campus Police: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Criminal Homicide <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ murder/non-negligent manslaughter ○ manslaughter by negligence • Robbery • Aggravated assault • Burglary • Motor vehicle theft • Arson • Liquor law violations, drug law violations, and weapons possession. 	Report to Office of Title IX & Clery Compliance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sexual Assault* <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ rape ○ fondling ○ incest ○ statutory rape • VAWA offenses* <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ dating violence ○ domestic violence ○ stalking * If the Complainant wants the incident reported to campus police please do so, otherwise, DO NOT report to campus police.

UNC Pembroke has a duty and responsibility to notify the campus community about crimes that pose a serious or ongoing threat to the campus community via a Timely Warning or an Emergency Notification. Campus police cannot provide these warnings to the campus community if they do not know the threat exists. As a CSA, you are obligated by law to report these specific Clery crimes to campus police and/or the Title IX Coordinator (sexual assault & VAWA offenses). Even if you are not sure whether an ongoing threat exists, immediately report to campus police so the university can make the appropriate assessment and issue any necessary warning in a timely manner.
