

Assistant Professor in Reading Education

UNC Pembroke School of Education (SOE) seeks to fill an academic, tenure-track position as Assistant Professor with specialization in Reading Education. Preference will be given to candidates with an emphasis in literacy/reading and research areas. Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate and/or graduate students, supervision of interns, advising students, and collaborating across the University and SOE regional partners and community. Service and professional development/research responsibilities will be consistent with a tenure-track position.

An earned doctorate in Curriculum and Instruction with an emphasis in literacy/reading or a doctorate in Reading Education and/or school based research. The candidate must have a minimum of three (3) years teaching experience in a K-12 setting, experience in teaching and developing on-line courses, and some higher education experience. The University of North Carolina at Pembroke is an EEO/AA Employer.

Applicants should hold (or be eligible for) North Carolina license in Reading.

For full consideration, apply online using the UNCP Online Employment System at <https://jobs.uncp.edu>. Attach cover letter and curriculum vitae. Mail copies of transcripts and three letters of recommendation to:

Dr. Betty Brown
Search Committee Chair
School of Education
UNC Pembroke
PO Box 1510
Pembroke, NC 28372-1510