

Assistant Professor in Counseling

Counseling: Assistant Professor preferred, Associate considered. Full-time, tenure-track position. Start time August 2008. Completed doctorate in Counseling and eligibility for licensure in NC required to begin position. The successful candidate will teach in evening master's programs and occasionally in the undergraduate program. Teaching responsibilities to include core courses, specialty courses, skills, and internship supervision. Must be committed to a balanced program of teaching, research, and service. Summer teaching possible and probable. Salary competitive and commensurate with rank. Review of applications to begin immediately and continue until position is filled. Apply using the UNCP online employment system at <https://jobs.uncp.edu>. Please provide in the online employment system an application letter (describe counseling experience/licensure status [if not yet licensed in NC please provide hours of supervised practice and NCE status], teaching experience/interests, research history/interests), vitae, and sample syllabi of relevant courses taught. Please send by mail unofficial copies of all graduate transcripts, and three letters of reference to:

Dr. Hugh Jackson, Chair Counseling Program Search Committee
Psychology and Counseling Department
University of North Carolina at Pembroke
One University Drive
Pembroke, North Carolina 28372-1510

UNC is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer and has a strong commitment to diversity.