

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Interim Dean: Thomas J. Leach

The College of Arts and Sciences is composed of 13 academic departments offering a variety of programs leading to bachelor's degrees, including the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Music, and Bachelor of Social Work. Students interested in any of these programs should consult the department descriptions in this section of the catalog to obtain information about academic requirements for a specific bachelor's degree program.

The College of Arts and Sciences also offers the Master of Science in Public Management with concentrations in Criminal Justice and Health Administration. Other master's degrees, including the Master of Arts in English Education, School Counseling, and Service Agency Counseling and the Master of Arts in Education in Art Education, Mathematics Education, Science Education, and Social Studies Education, are available through the School of Graduate Studies. Students interested in any of these programs should consult the Graduate Studies section of the catalog to obtain information about academic requirements for a specific master's degree program.

The RN/BSN program offered by the Southeastern North Carolina Nursing Consortium, a cooperative effort between Fayetteville State University (FSU) and UNCP, is designed for registered nurses who wish to earn the baccalaureate nursing degree. Students interested in this program should consult the Nursing Program section of the catalog.
