This catalog provides the basic information you will need about The University of North Carolina at Pembroke. It includes our history and current goals, admissions standards and requirements, tuition and other costs, sources of financial aid, and rules and regulations that govern student life. This catalog also describes our student organizations and other activities on the campus, lists courses and programs by department, and contains the name, rank, and educational background of each faculty member.

UNC Pembroke is one of sixteen universities in North Carolina that comprise The University of North Carolina. UNCP has a thirteen-member Board of Trustees and, like the other institutions of The University of North Carolina, is subject to the governing regulations of The Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina.

UNC Pembroke is committed to equality of educational opportunity and does not discriminate against applicants, students, or employees based on color, national origin, religion, sex, age, or handicap. Moreover, UNCP is open to people of all races and actively seeks to promote racial integration by recruiting and enrolling a larger number of American Indian, Black, Asian, and Hispanic students.

UNC Pembroke reserves the right to change without notice any fee, provision, offering, or requirement in this catalog, and to determine whether a student has satisfactorily met the requirements for admission or graduation.

The University of North Carolina at Pembroke is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097; telephone 404-679-4501) to award Baccalaureate and Master's level degrees.

UNC Pembroke is also accredited by or is a member of:

- The North Carolina Association of Colleges and Universities
- The National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education
- The National Association of Schools of Music
- The American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education
- The American Council on Education
- The North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission
- The North Carolina State Board of Education
- The American Association of State Colleges and Universities
- The Council on Social Work Education
- The National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration
- The American Chemical Society
- The Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education
