The Department of English, Theatre, and Languages of The University of North Carolina at Pembroke exists for the common good of its students, of the campus community, and of a rational and humane society. The Department offers distinctive, realistically conceived, and well-executed programs for (1) the English major; (2) the student seeking North Carolina Teacher Licensure in English, grades 9-12 (program approved by NCTE), or ESL Add-On Licensure; (3) the Theatre major; (4) the Spanish major; (5) the General Education student, served by a strong Composition program and a wide choice of courses; (6) the Education major seeking an academic concentration in English or Spanish; (7) the student majoring in another subject who wishes to develop a minor in an area of English, Theatre, and Languages or simply to choose an elective or two; and (8) the in-service teacher, or college graduate with a background in English or a related discipline, seeking post-graduate work in English Education. The Department recognizes that each program has a distinctive philosophy and specific objectives, which are made clear to students involved in each program.

The Department office offers information about advisement and screening procedures for English majors, teacher licensure candidates in English, and Theatre majors. Also available is information about academic concentrations in English and Spanish and minors in French, Spanish, Language, Literature, Speech, Theatre, and Writing. These are offered to all students enrolled at the University.

Pembroke Magazine, housed in the Department of English, Theatre, and Languages and founded in 1969 by the late Norman Macleod while he was at UNC Pembroke, focuses on North Carolina, national, and international writers. It publishes both beginning and established writers.

The University Theatre, a performance program housed in the Givens Performing Arts Center, provides a practical laboratory for the theoretical and artistic components of the Theatre Program of the Department.

The English, Theatre, and Languages Department recommends that all of its majors study a foreign language throughout their college careers; six semester hours (or equivalent competency) are required.

A grade of C (2.0) in both ENG 105 (Composition I) and ENG 106 (Composition II) is prerequisite to all literature and language courses at the 200 level and above except for THE 250 (Introduction to Theatre). All full-time students enroll in Composition I during their first semester of full-time study and continue consecutively thereafter until they successfully complete both ENG 105 and ENG 106.
