

Sim White Award for Outstanding Leadership and Service

A leader is defined as a person who assists others in visualizing a brighter future. A leader will take risks and travel various paths to accomplish goals. Being a leader is challenging and comes from one's personality functions and the ability of how they're used (Brueggemann, William G., 2002).

The Leadership and Service Opportunities Program (LSOP) is a student led organization that seeks to empower students to become engaged citizens that impact communities through service. LSOP educates students through community awareness, encourages student engagement in volunteer service and recognizes student achievement in civic engagement and leadership development. We endeavor to lead our campus into a commitment to Help others, Engage opportunities, Activate service, Recognize achievement, and Touch lives. LSOP volunteers are the HEART of UNCP!

We want to recognize outstanding student leadership. This award was established in honor of Sim White, a UNCP student who died on February 18, 2003. He was recognized as a Distinguished Leader and a Leadership Fellow. Sim was a person with unique qualities that fit the characteristics of leadership in an ultimate way. He explored and obtained resources to better serve students and his community. He stressed the importance of self-strength and worth. He valued others and helped them in accomplishing their goals. His warmth, compassion and smiles were a light for his fellow classmates, friends and associates. He was a great social leader. Sim graduated from UNCP in December 2002.

UNCP Faculty, Staff, and Students: The LSOP Board would appreciate your nominations of students who have displayed unique qualities of leadership and service to continue the legacy of this student. Nominees will be considered for the LSOP Award for Outstanding Leadership and Service. Nominations are due by 5 p.m. on Wednesday, April 2, 2010. The award recipient will be recognized at the Award & Recognition Ceremony on April 20, 2010. This leadership award is for students registered with the Leadership and Service Opportunities Program (LSOP). Please contact Aubrey Swett at aubrey.swett@uncp.edu if you need to verify the student's enrollment with LSOP.
