

Summer School Financial Aid Application

Financial assistance is generally limited for summer school. However, if you did not attend full time in the fall and spring, you may have remaining Pell Grant for summer school. If you do not have remaining Pell Grant, you can apply for a student loan, providing you've not exhausted your loan eligibility for the academic year.

Once you've been awarded, you should be able to view your award on Braveweb. Simply logon to your account in Braveweb, click on [Banner Self-Service], click [Student and Financial Aid], then [Financial Aid].

If you are entering UNCP for the first time in the summer session, you will need to complete a FAFSA for the year (the summer session is a part of the prior fall and spring academic year). If you have not completed the FAFSA, please complete the 2008/09 FAFSA at the following URL : www.fafsa.ed.gov. Undergraduate students must take a total of 6 hours over the summer to be eligible for loans.

Check the session that you will attend and Circle the number of hours you plan to enroll.
