

The University of North Carolina at Pembroke
 Graduate Admissions Information for International Students

We welcome your application for admission to our Graduate School. The University of North Carolina at Pembroke is a state-supported university and we have a very limited number of assistantships available for out-of-state and/or international students.

The issuance of Form I-20 or DS-2019 to international applicants is dependent upon:

1. Your formal admission to a graduate program at UNC Pembroke.
2. Your ability to afford the costs associated with attending UNC Pembroke.

You must satisfy both of these requirements prior to issuance of Form I-20 or DS-2019.

Estimated Annual Costs in U.S. Dollars as of September 2007. Subject to change.
	Fall & Spring		Summer Sessions I & II	Year Total
Tuition and Fees	$12,923	+	$1,715	$14,477
Books	$ 1,200	+	$ 500	$ 1,700
Room and Board	$ 5,900	+	$2,000	$ 7,900
Insurance	$ 480	+	$ 240	$ 720
Travel & personal expenses	$ 2,000	+	$1,000	$ 3,000
Totals	$22,503	+	$5,455	$27,958

Travel and personal expenses are estimated at $3,000/year and do not include the costs associated with dependents or family members. While students may choose to estimate their expenses based solely upon attending Fall and Spring semesters ($22,503), UNC Pembroke encourages students to make estimates based on year-round attendance ($27,958). Whether attendance is planned for 9 or 12 months, additional expenses beyond the cost of attendance should be anticipated and are solely the responsibility of the student.

Financial Certification

You must complete this form and submit supporting documents to UNCP prior to the issuance of your I-20 or DS 2019. Failure to provide official bank statements and other supporting documents can result in the delay or rejection of your visa application. By law, international student must attend the university full-time and are not permitted to work off-campus. Do NOT include or anticipate any income from U.S. employment as a part of your financial plan.
