Article Databases:

eHRAF Archaeology

eHRAF Archaeology is a cross-cultural database that currently contains nearly 60,000 pages of information on the world's prehistory. This unique, annually-growing eHRAF database is organized by archaeological traditions and the full-text sources are all subject-indexed to the paragraph level.

eHRAF World Cultures

eHRAF World Cultures contains ca. 137 cultures and over 350,000 pages of indexed ethnographic information. In the spring of each year, 10 to 15 cultures and 40,000 pages are added to this growing cross-cultural database.

Social Sciences Citation Index

Social Sciences Citation Index consists of multidisciplinary indexes of bibliographic information gathered from thousands of scholarly journals.

Sociological Abstracts

Provides access to the latest research in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences from journals, serials, conference papers, books, and dissertations.
