Allyson Betot, left, Jamel Lee and Emily Rasdorf act out a scene in The Laramie Project. The Laramie Project, written by Moises Kaufman, originally portrayed by members of the Tectonic Theater, is a project about the death of Matthew Shepard who was beaten to death and hung on a wire fence because he was homosexual in Laramie, Wyo. Betot and Rasdorf were playing two friends of the accused being interviewed by a member from the theater, Lee. The play was held in the Givens Performing Arts Center and ran from Oct. 28 -Oct. 31. Over the four day period the audience increased in size.
