We provide online professional development certificate programs in conjunction with Gatlin Education Services. GES is the country's leading online educational services company, providing the country's most popular web-based workforce training programs in partnership with non-credit departments like WCU nation-wide. The programs are all open enrollment, asynchronous, interactive experiences. Students love the quality as well as the convenience of these browser-based courses (no plug-ins are necessary).

GES is the recognized leader in asynchronous WBT (web-based training) to students in partnership with Colleges and Universities via the popular Diamond G brand™ courses. The programs are designed to provide the skills necessary to acquire professional caliber positions in a variety of in-demand occupations—all within a three-month delivery window.
