Spring 2015 UNCP Cartography Competition

Call for submissions

The Spring 2015 UNCP Cartography Competition will soon be accepting entries. The competition is meant to encourage students to share their mapping prowess on a project of personal interest. All students across the university are encouraged to participate in the competition. For this inaugural year, only physical/hard copy products will be accepted as part of the competition. Submissions should meet the following requirements:

- Documents should be no larger than 36” x 48” landscape, but no smaller than 8.5” x 11”.
- While there is not a specific topic required for submissions, the content must be original and appropriately referenced.
- Submissions should follow the PURC Symposium submission process in addition to submitting your entry for the UNCP Cartography Competition.
  - Abstracts must be submitted to the PURC Symposium by March 6th.
  - Deadline for entry to the Cartography Competition is April 1st.
  - Deadline for uploading the document is April 1st.
  - PURC Symposium and judging will be April 8th.

Your submission can be a standalone map, or a poster whose focus centers on a map or maps. Judging will focus on appropriate map design, information conveyed, and originality.

“Cash” prizes will be made available to the winning entries: $50 gift card to the overall winner and a $25 gift card to two runner-ups.

Submissions must be uploaded by 11:59PM on April 1st through the UNCP Cartography Competition form on the Geology & Geography Department Student Awards page.

Additional details may be available via the Student Awards page on the Department of Geology & Geography site. If you have questions, please contact Jesse Rouse in 232 Old Main or via email at jesse.rouse@uncp.edu.
