

THE BRITISH STUDIES MINOR

The minor in British Studies is designed to provide an inter-disciplinary curriculum for History majors pursuing an emphasis in British history, and English majors specializing in British literature, to broaden their understanding of the cultural, social, and political evolution of Great Britain. It is designed to both satisfy a demand for inter-disciplinary British studies, and further prepare undergraduate students for graduate study in a variety of disciplines relating to British Studies.

Requirements for a British Studies Minor

Sem. Hrs.

Program Core (required): 2 courses

6

Introduction to British Studies: HST 214

British Literature Survey: ENG 247 or ENG 248

Guided Electives: 4 courses from at least two different departments, with a minimum of 3 300/400 courses (other courses focusing on Britain may be approved by the program coordinator).

History

HST 417 History of Modern Britain

HST 441 History of Medieval Britain

HST 442 History of Tudor/Stuart Britain

HST 443 History of the British Empire

HST 451 Senior Seminar (when course is offered as a British history topic)

English

ENG 2XX (when course is offered as a British literature topic)

ENG 247 British Literature Before 1790 (if not used as a prerequisite)

ENG 248 British Literature After 1790 (if not used as a prerequisite)

ENG 311 Medieval British Literature

ENG 312 Modern British Literature

ENG 315 British Romantic Literature

ENG 316 Victorian Literature

ENG 33X Special Topics in Literature (when course is offered as a British Literature topic)

ENG 342 The British Novel

ENG 457 Shakespeare

ENG 451 (proposed) Study Abroad: Study tour in Great Britain (instructor approval required, offered when time and funding are available: 2-7 semester hours)

ENGS 4XX Seminar in Literature (when course is offered as a British Literature topic)

Philosophy and Religion

PHI 204 Introduction to Ethics

PHI 405 Victorian Social and Political Thought

Total: 18