UNCP School of Business team wins UNC title

As top leaders from across the UNC system looked on, Daniel Bougt and Lewis Adams raised UNCP’s flag in victory.

The graduate students won top honors in the 2nd UNC Social Entrepreneurship Conference.

MBA candidates and student-athletes, Bougt and Adams, bested 13 teams from 10 UNC graduate programs and walked away with a $5,000 prize. The pair submitted a business plan and made two oral presentations that would establish a retail outlet for STARworks NC, a non-profit center for creative enterprise in Montgomery County.
