Order of Business

A. Roll Call: The meeting was called to order by Chair Simmons at 3:30PM.
B. Approval of Minutes of May 4, 2016: The Minutes were approved as corrected, 22-0-0.

C. Adoption of Agenda: The Agenda was adopted 22-0-0.

D. Reports from Administration
   1. Chancellor—Robin G. Cummings
      Dr. Cummings announced that enrollment was down from last fall by about 175 students, which equates to approximately $1.5 million less revenue. The freshman class is down about 130 students from last year’s record high of 1233. He also discussed his monthly “Coffee with the Chancellor” initiative, stating that there were about 10 people at the first session. Dr. Cummings noted that last year was focused on salary equity, raising 20 full-time faculty who were below 10% salary range above that mark. This year, due to range changes, we have 28 faculty below the 10% range. The plan is to bring up 20 members above 10% rather immediately, and the other 8 later. The long range goal is to get everyone between 50 - 80% range. The Chancellor reported that he is meeting with chancellors of the two other NC Promise universities regarding plans for implementation. Dr. Cummings thanked Provost Locklear for her service and discussed plans for the Provost search, hoping to introduce the new candidate to the board in April. The process will be closed until the finals, then will become open to involve the university community. A self-nomination form will be distributed for those wishing to serve on the hiring committee. The Chancellor’s Office is currently vetting companies to aid in the national search. The hiring committee will interview three companies and decide which to use.

   2. Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs—Zoe Locklear
      Mark Gogol gave a report on the next steps with BraveBook. There are 17 initiatives based on five defining categories, all focused on maximizing student success. These are reviewed by the cabinet on monthly basis and the categories can change from year to year depending on the needs of the university.

E. Reports of Committees
   1. Operations Committees
      a. Executive Committee—Sara Simmons
         Chair Simmons gave brief comments on the role of the Faculty Senate. She also reported on the following items as listed in the agenda, noting that adjustments that were made to Appendix B appear highlighted in yellow.
         1. Invited presentation on the BraveBook initiative introduced at the Braves Kickoff on August 10
         2. Appointment by the Executive Committee of Tom Dooling to serve as Chair pro tem of the Faculty Senate in the absence of the elected Chair
         3. On August 16, 2016, the Executive Committee met with Chancellor Cummings and Provost Locklear for discussion about priorities for the year and about how strong shared governance can help UNCP to continue to move forward.

4. A schedule for submission of minutes and agendas is being shared with all chairs of Operations Committees and Standing Committees for dissemination to all subcommittee chairs. It is our hope that this process will help us assure that all committee and subcommittee websites are kept updated and current over the coming academic year.

b. Committee on Committees & Elections—Tom Dooling

Resolution 2017-1
On the Governance Implications of North Carolina Session Law 2016-94
Approved by the UNC Faculty Assembly September 02, 2016

Whereas, NC General Statute 116-11 establishes a Board of Governors to plan and develop a coordinated system of higher education and govern the 17 constituent institutions; and

Whereas, NC General Statute 116-14 provides for the Board to elect a President of University of North Carolina to act as the chief administrative officer of the University; and

Whereas, UNC operates under a system of shared governance leveraging the collective strength of chancellors, and administrators, and honoring the traditional role of the faculty in the governance of the academy; and

Whereas; Session Law 2016-94, section 11.6 (GS 116-239.5) mandates the creation of Lab Schools on eight UNC campuses, circumventing: administrative structures and procedures established by the UNC Code, the Department of Public Instruction, local Boards of Education, and best practices of effective governance by excluding consultation with faculty and administrators of the schools of education at UNC campuses; and

Whereas; Session Law 2016-94, section 11.8 establishes a Policy “Collaboratory” at UNC Chapel Hill in apparent violation of multiple clauses of GS 116, and established procedures for the creation of centers and institutes required by UNC Code 400.5[R], which clearly apply to this entity; and

Whereas; Session Law 2016-94, section 11.9 overrides Board of Governors’ action penalizing UNC Chapel Hill in the 2015-2016 academic year for exceeding the UNC Code mandated 18% out-of-state enrollment cap, thereby undermining the lawful prerogative authority of the Board of Governors and principles of effective institutional governance;

Resolved, The UNC Faculty Assembly opposes the processes of formulating and implementing the aforementioned actions, and reiterates the Assembly’s opposition to all actions establishing restrictive precedent that binds the governance authority of the current faculty and its successors, the Executive leadership of UNC campuses and the UNC system, current and future Boards of Governors, and future representatives of the people of this State, in their efforts to promote the success of public higher education in North Carolina;

Resolved, That the NC General Assembly fully restore all prerogative authority of the Board of Governors in matters pertaining to institutional adherence to the UNC Code; and Resolved, That the appended justification of this resolution (Appendix A) provides a narrative of developments and concerns explaining its origins.

APPENDIX A
Justification for UNC Faculty Assembly Resolution 2016-5
On the Governance Implications of North Carolina Session Law 2016-94

A. Section 11.6 Lab Schools – NC 116-239
a. Section NC 116-239 of the NC budget calls for the Board of Governors (BOG) to designate eight campuses to establish “Laboratory Schools” to improve student performance in local administrative units with low performance schools. Except as provided, Lab Schools are exempt from statutes and rules applicable to local Boards of Education.

b. Board of Governors records (or lack thereof) show that the creation of the Lab Schools was mandated unilaterally by the Legislature without the informed input of GA, chancellors or any of the deans and faculty in the colleges of education in the system.

c. The legislation establishes new duties for Boards of Trustees well beyond those established by the Code. These include adopting a plan for the location of the Lab Schools, appointing advisory boards that will provide general oversight, and other duties which are within the purview of faculty, such as establishing the standard course of study for Lab Schools and conducting student assessments.

d. The bill circumvents the Department of Public Instruction, local school boards, and possibly SACS and other accreditation agencies regulating schools of education.

e. The bill provides no resources for its enactment.

SUMMARY: This legislation is an unprecedented and unjustified overreach into the management of UNC institutions, including an unfunded mandate that will burden institutional resources, an instance of legislative interference in the curriculum of UNC institutions, and a statutory constraint on faculty working conditions that are more appropriately managed at the campus level.

B. Section 11.8 UNC-CH Policy Collaboratory
a. Section 11.8 of Session Law 2016-94 establishes a “Policy Collaboratory” at UNC-CH to facilitate the dissemination of policy and research expertise on environmental matters, primarily for practical use by State and local government.

b. Board of Governors records (or lack thereof) show that the creation of the Policy “Collaboratory” was mandated unilaterally by the Legislature without approval by the Board or consultation with Chapel Hill academic units carrying disciplinary responsibility for research on these and related topics.

c. The “Collaboratory” Policy is in our considered judgment a violation of both North Carolina statute, and UNC Policy, including:
i. NC GS 116-11.2, which establishes Board authority “for the general determination, control, supervision, management and governance of all affairs of the constituent institutions,”

ii. NC GS 116-11.9c, which does not “allow the General Assembly, except as to capital improvements, to refer to particular constituent institutions and any specifications as to priorities” in matters pertaining to “new programs and activities, expansions of programs and activities, increases in enrollments, increases to accommodate internal shifts and categories of persons served… improvements in levels of operation and increases to remedy deficiencies, as well as other areas.”

iii. NC GS 116-11.9a which constrains favoring particular institutions, as it must (per) prepare “a single, unified recommended budget for all of the constituent institutions,” including “funds requested without reference to constituent institutions.”

iv. UNC Policy 400.5, which requires campuses to initiate all planning, and the Board of Governors to exercise approval authority, for all research, service, and teaching centers and institutes; this entity clearly falls into this category. Faculty have noted that this action is particularly troubling as these Regulations were altered in 2015 to allow the Board to unilaterally eliminate -- at the behest of the legislature and Governors' office -- centers and institutes. Now it appears that the legislature has arbitrarily superseded all processes and procedures regarding University centers and institutes simply by inventing a non-existing word for the title of this program.

SUMMARY: The Faculty Assembly counsels that UNC General Administration, and the UNC Chapel Hill Administration, make every effort to oppose and to call for correcting this misuse of legislative powers. This issue has the potential to generate dispute over jurisdictional authority, as well as reviving the kinds of discontents over process and substance that marked the Board's 2015 interventions in campus research, teaching, and service centers and institutes activities.

3. Section 11.9 Out of State penalty refund to Chapel Hill

At the March 4 2016 meeting of the BOG, UNCCCH was penalized $1 million for violations of the UNC Code mandated out-of-state enrollment cap of 18%. Session Law 2016-94 partially restores those cuts back to the UNCCCH campus, thereby eroding the powers of the Board.

SUMMARY. It is in general problematic when the legislature overrides authority delegated to the Board, and overturns the provisions of NC GS 116-11.9a, which constrains the legislature from favoring particular institutions, sets a very troubling precedent that allows individual legislators to push through statutes singling out individual campuses for reward or punishment.

Committee on Faculty Governance Proposal
Faculty Senate Meeting – October 5, 2016

Proposed:
Add the Director of the Center for Student Success to the membership of the Enrollment Management Subcommittee

Passed 6-0-0 on September 20, 2016

Rationale: At the request of the Director of the Center for Student Success, the Committee on Faculty Governance considered adding this position as an ex officio member of the Enrollment Management Subcommittee. Changes to the administrative structure in the areas of enrollment management and student success over the last few years have resulted in there being no official voice on the Enrollment Management Subcommittee in the areas of advising, new student programs, academic engagement, COP, the writing center, and TRIO. The committee still has the Associate Vice Chancellor for Enrollment (vacant) as a member. Now that person will only oversee the registrar, admissions, and financial aid.

The addition of this position to the committee should allow for more productive discussions concerning oversight of these areas within the faculty side of shared governance.

Article VI Section 4 By-Laws of the Faculty Constitution

The Subcommittees and Boards shall be composed as follows, with each member having one vote:

A. Academic Affairs Committee
   1. The Subcommittee on Curriculum:
      Two Representatives from each Division,
      One Representative from the Office for Academic Affairs,
      Registrar,
      SGA Secretary,
      SGA Senator.
   2. The Enrollment Management Subcommittee
      One faculty member from each division, one of whom shall Chair the subcommittee,
      Associate Vice Chancellor for Enrollment
      Director of the Center for Student Success
      One SGA representative.
   3. The Subcommittee on Academic Support Services:
      One Representative from each Division, one of whom shall Chair the subcommittee
      Associate Vice Chancellor for Information Resources,
      Dean of Library Services,
Director of the Academic Support Center,
Director of the Accessibility Resource Center,
Director of the Writing Center
Two at-large faculty members from departments not already represented,
One Graduate Student,
One SGA Senator.

2015-16 General Education Subcommittee Response to the Final Report of the UNC General Education Council

Executive Summary: The following statement is intended to offer a response to the December 2015 Final Report of the UNC General Education Council. While there is no recommended action or proposal attached to this response, the goal is to highlight the work of the committee as a whole, to disseminate all of the recommendations of the General Education Council, and to highlight certain recommendations that seem particularly germane to UNC Pembroke. The goal is that the UNC Pembroke community is aware of this conversation and has a record of the Council’s recommendations as discussions about General education assessment continue and evolve.

Council Recommendations
The General Education Council offered the following recommendations:

1. The UNC General Administration (GA) support assessment that can inform pedagogy. To do so, GA should:
   a. Encourage institutions, as part of their participation in the Voluntary System of Accountability (VSA), to select forms of assessment that map best to their institutional goals and student learning objectives;
   b. Serve as the convener for the individuals across the system who have the primary responsibility for assessment on each campus;
   c. Sponsor annual workshops at which universities share information about general education programs, approaches used for assessment, lessons learned, and how this information is used to improve the effectiveness of instruction;
   d. Continue to encourage the development of expertise in portfolio assessments by offering additional grant awards to campuses that did not participate in the earlier pilot;
   e. Investigate the possibility of system-wide evaluation and licensing of e-portfolio platforms;
   f. Maintain our commitment to working with ETS to conduct the HEIghten operational test in spring 2016; and
   g. Reconvene the GEC in fall 2016 to examine the results of the spring 2016 HEIghten test administration and to discuss the potential for assessment-based research, including collaborative research with ETS.

2. The faculty and academic administrators, including the Faculty Assembly, CAOs and assessment directors, of the UNC universities should:
   a. Adopt a systematic presentation for reporting on assessment strategies and outcomes, such as the NILOA Transparency Framework;
   b. Seek external review of institutional assessment programs through the VSA;
c. Engage faculty leaders in general education from across the system to participate in regular discussion of approaches to general education assessment and use of results;
d. Meet to oversee the results of assessment and to refine our understanding of best practices in general education assessment;
e. Use standardized tests and other assessment strategies as research tools to inform questions about each institution’s specific population and goals;
f. Set the cycle and scope of testing to meet the institution’s curricular needs, and as part of the VSA, include a standardized assessment to provide an external benchmark for those SLOs that are embedded in the institution’s curricular goals;
g. Strive to identify new and empirically informed ways to assess and improve programs; and
h. Remain mindful of the administrative costs of assessment, which can be substantial and ongoing, and balance those against the quality of information derived from assessment, with a focus on assessment data that are sufficiently granular to improve teaching and learning in the classroom. (13-14)

General Education Subcommittee: Recommendations at the University Level
Of the recommendations to the institution above, the General Education Subcommittee would like to highlight the following elements as particularly germane to UNC Pembroke’s goals and values:

• Transparency

• Ongoing Dialogue

• Using general education data to inform research and make meaningful results, and

• Respect the rights and diversity of institutions, including encouraging continued autonomy over the setting of SLOs

While these are fairly self-explanatory, the General Education Subcommittee wants to highlight the Council’s emphasis that transparency should be a defining objective of general education data collection and analysis, both in terms of what is to be collected, how it is collected, and how that data is shared with the campus. The Subcommittee also reiterates the Council’s suggestion that general education data primarily be used as a means of driving research and initiatives, and that all goals are made with the unique character, mission, and strengths of the particular institution in mind, rather than being uniform throughout the system.

General Education Subcommittee: Recommendations at the Administrative Level
While the General Education Subcommittee is less fully qualified to comment on system-wide goals, it would like to reiterate the recommendation that costs continue to be carefully considered at the GA level, encouraging continued support from the GA for assessment, and stressing that issues of both funding and student participation are more exigent to an institution of our size and resources.
Acknowledgements
The subcommittee would like to highlight the thoughtfulness, time, energy, and effort the General Education Council put into this report as a whole, and particularly highlight the two UNC Pembroke committee members, Dr. Richard Gay, and Dr. Rachel Smith.

Faculty and Institutional Affairs Committee (FIAC)
Items for Faculty Senate Meeting - October 7, 2016

Passed 10-0-0 on September 27, 2016

The Faculty Development and Welfare Subcommittee (FDWS) brought forth two recommendations. After discussion, FIAC moved and approved the following recommendations:

1. Recommendation Concerning the Teaching and Learning Center

   The Committee recommends there be faculty involvement in the study of best practices in Teaching and Learning Centers at Masters Comprehensive Universities and in the development of a model for the Teaching and Learning Center at UNC Pembroke. Further, faculty should be directly involved in the search for a director.

2. Recommendation Concerning the Implementation of NC Promise

   Given the potential impact of NC Promise on the faculty of UNC-Pembroke, the Committee strongly recommends the administration include legitimate faculty participation (persons in faculty roles, not administrative roles) in discussions of NC Promise. Such participation ensures representation of faculty concerns and allows direct reporting back to faculty.
