The University of North Carolina at Pembroke, located in Pembroke, NC, is a four-year public university and part of the University of North Carolina system. UNC Pembroke is regionally accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award Baccalaureate and Master's level degrees.

Sandhills Community College, located in Pinehurst, NC, is a two-year public community college and part of the North Carolina Community College System. Sandhills Community College is regionally accredited by the Southern Association of College and Schools Commission on Colleges to award associate degrees, diplomas and certificates.

The parties agree to the following:

1. All students must meet UNC Pembroke transfer admissions requirements. The student must complete a UNC Pembroke transfer application. Final admission to UNC Pembroke is contingent upon the submission of an official Sandhills Community College transcript as well as official transcripts from any other college from which credits are used to meet graduation requirements prior to enrolling at UNC Pembroke.

For more information, please refer to UNC Pembroke's specific degree requirements for majors. A course equivalency chart is attached to this document (Attachment A).
