The University will pay the fee for Pearson official scoring ($300) for the candidate's first attempt. Candidates who do not pass edTPA on the first attempt must pay Pearson directly for partial or full retakes ($100 per task), including candidates who do not receive scores due to condition codes or administrative reviews.
 - b. Candidates who do not pass edTPA on the first attempt must attend an edTPA Workday on Saturday, November 17 from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. There, they will work with their University-Based Teacher Educator, Program Coordinator, and edTPA Remediation Team member to develop a remediation plan based on the edTPA score report and retake guidelines. Candidates will then resubmit to Pearson. The edTPA score from the resubmission will be recorded as 40% of the seminar grade and the Incomplete will be replaced with a Pass or Fail. Candidates are strongly encouraged to carefully follow all directions in the handbooks, refer to the support documents often, and ask questions to avoid the need for retakes.

- There will be two resubmission dates available: Nov. 21 (to be returned Dec. 13) and Dec. 6 (to be returned Dec 27).
