Poetry Reading with Dr. Julie Kane

Thanks to the Pembroke Magazine, the College of Arts and Sciences, and the Friends of the Library of UNC Pembroke, we will have a poetry reading by Dr. Julie Kane, who is a poet, editor, poet laureate of Louisiana (2011-2013), and Professor Emeritus at Northwestern University, Natchitoches, Louisiana. Dr. Kane has also been a Fulbright Lecturer and was twice New Orleans Writer-in-Residence at Tulane University.

Her books include Paper Bullets (2013), Jazz Funeral (2009), Rhythm and Booze (2003), and Body and Soul (1987). Along with Grace Bauer, she edited the recent collection, Nasty Women Poets: An Unapologetic Collection of Subversive Verse (2017), and she was associate editor for the Southern literature anthology, Voices of the American South (2005). At Cornell she studied with two North Carolina Writers, A. R. Ammons and Robert Morgan, who have both visited UNCP.

Dr. Julie Kane

March 14, 2019
5:00-7:00 p.m.
The Museum of the Southeast American Indian
Old Main
Reception to follow

Co-sponsored by Pembroke Magazine, the College of Arts and Sciences, and The Friends of the Library of UNC Pembroke.

This publication is available in alternative formats upon request. Please contact the Accessibility Resource Center, D.F. Lowry Building, Room 107, or call 910.521.6695.