"The ELI program is very useful and prepares you for real academic life. There are lots of events and trips for international students, so that they can interact with Americans and enjoy American culture. My favorite part is the Conversation Partner Program, where I can talk to native speakers all the time. My English has improved so much in just one semester. — Phuna Ha Kim (Bella), Vietnam

"Studying in the ELI program really meant a lot to me. As a non-native English speaker, I was so afraid to speak to Americans. My Listening and Speaking teacher encouraged me to communicate with American students without worrying about making mistakes. Soon, I became more confident when speaking in front of people. After only one semester at the ELI, I felt I fully adapted to school life at UNCP. — Ruoyu Chen (Ariel), China

"I really enjoyed studying in the ELI program. When I came to the U.S., I didn’t feel confident about my English, but the professors encouraged me to practice with native speakers and classmates all the time. Although classes were intensive, the professors were very interactive and enthusiastic, so we were never bored. In only one semester, I was ready to start my graduate program. The ELI program gave me the tools to study and be competitive in the MBA program. I’m so happy with this experience." — Ana Maria Guillermo Florentino, Mexico
The English Language Institute (ELI) at the University of North Carolina at Pembroke offers intensive English language instruction, pre-academic training, and cultural orientation to international students preparing for university study in the United States. Students who do not meet UNCP’s minimum English language requirement can apply to the ELI and matriculate to academic classes upon successful completion of the program.

Our campus is located in a beautiful, small-town setting in Southeastern North Carolina less than two hours from Charlotte, Raleigh-Durham, Wilmington and Myrtle Beach. UNCP is the safest campus in the UNC system and is the most diverse campus in the South.

Features of the ELI Program

- 20 hours of intensive English instruction per week
- Small classes with individualized attention
- Highly-trained, caring teachers with Master’s degrees in TESOL
- Trips to the beach, mountains, and surrounding cities
- Full access to UNC Pembroke facilities (gym, library, computer labs, dining hall, etc.)
- On-campus housing
