The Department of Social Work at the University of North Carolina at Pembroke invites applications for a tenure-track 9-month faculty position at the rank of Assistant Professor.

The Department of Social Work has both BSW and MSW programs. Programs include advanced standing and 2-year regular program. The successful candidate may be required to teach one or more areas of the BSW and MSW social work curricula, and field practicum; provide academic advisement to students; develop curriculum, and teach face-to-face and online courses. In addition to instructional duties, he/she would be required to maintain an active scholarship, participate in service activities, and extramural funding activities.

Master of Social Work degree from a CSWE accredited program is required. A doctorate/PhD in Social Work or closely related discipline is preferred. ABD students will be considered. Two years of post-MSW degree professional work experience is required. Some level of teaching college/university students is preferred.

Application should be submitted online through UNC-Pembroke Human Resource website. Application should include:
1. A cover letter indicating relevant professional work experience, college/university teaching experiences, teaching philosophy, and research interests.
2. A current CV with the names and contact information, including email address for at least 3 references.
3. Copies of unofficial academic transcripts of all colleges/university completed (please, scan copies and attach to online application; original transcripts will be required if a candidate is considered for the position).

Applications will be reviewed until the position is filled.
