Assistant Professor of Management

The School of Business is accredited by the Association for Advancement of Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). AACSB accreditation differentiates business and accounting programs from those at other institutions in terms of quality, rigor, and relevance. Only five percent of business schools worldwide are accredited by AACSB international.

The School of Business values internationalization to prepare students for a competitive global environment, diversity to enrich personal growth and enhance the learning experience, ethical decision making to prepare students to serve as business leaders, and scholarship to benefit our students’ education.

The School of Business at The University of North Carolina at Pembroke invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track position in Management with a primary teaching and scholarship emphasis in Business Strategy/Business Policy/Strategic Planning to start Fall 2021.

The successful candidate will be required to assist the Director of Undergraduate advisement in Centralized Advising initiatives. Rank is Assistant Professor. Salary is commensurate with education and experience.

The School of Business is accredited by the Association for Advancement of Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). Potential for, or evidence of, successful teaching is required. The successful candidate will deliver undergraduate and MBA classes in Business Strategy/Business Policy/Strategic Planning. Additional specific course assignment will be based on strengths of the faculty member as well as department need.

The standard teaching load is 3 courses per semester; delivery will be on campus and online depending on department needs. Opportunities for Summer teaching are available.

Potential for, or evidence of, ongoing publication in peer-reviewed journals is required. A primary scholarship emphasis on Business Strategy/Business Policy/Strategic Planning as well as related Management topics is required. Ongoing peer-reviewed publication is required to maintain AACSB Scholarly Academic (SA) status, and for tenure and promotion consideration.
Service to the University/School/Department (including student advisement) as well as the profession and the broader community is required, as are organizational citizenship behaviors for the betterment of the university and key stakeholders.

Minimum Training and Experience Requirements: The successful candidate must hold a doctoral degree in Management or a Management-focused doctoral degree in Business Administration or a closely related field with a primary emphasis on Business Strategy/Business Policy/Strategic Planning, preferably from an AACSB-accredited institution and meet the Schools requirements for Scholarly Academic status (SA). Demonstrated extensive experience in EAB Student Success Collaborative is required.

Special Instructions to Applicants:

This position is subject to the successful completion of an employment background check. An employment background check includes a criminal background check, employment verification, reference checks, license verification (if applicable) and credit history check (if applicable).

In compliance with federal law, all persons hired will be required to verify identity and eligibility to work in the United States and to complete the required employment eligibility verification form upon hire.

New employees are paid only by direct deposit to the financial institution of their choice. Candidates claiming Veterans Preference must attach a copy of their DD-214 as a part of the online application process.

UNC Pembroke is an Equal Opportunity Employer. The University prohibits discrimination against qualified individuals based on their status as protected veterans or individuals with disabilities and prohibits discrimination against all individuals based on their age, race, color, genetic information, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression and national origin. UNC Pembroke is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and seeks priority referrals of protected veterans for our openings.