The following list of mental health professionals has been compiled with feedback from community members. If you have a resource that can be added, please email ashley.mcmillan@uncp.edu.

Amy Dial, MA, EdM, LCMHC, NCC
Scotland Family Counseling Center
amy@scotlandcounseling.org
Amy Dial is a Licensed Clinical Mental Health Counselor and a Nationally Certified Counselor. Before joining Scotland Family Counseling Center, she worked with military families in Cumberland County. Prior to that she worked on a horse farm using experiential therapy with victims of traumatic experiences. Ms. Dial enjoys spending time reading, traveling and being with her family. She holds a Bachelor’s degree from NC State University, a Bible Studies certificate from Emmaus Bible College and a Master of Arts in Education in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from University of North Carolina - Pembroke. She is a member of the Lumbee Tribe.

Tonia Deese, LCSW
Full Circle Wellness, PLLC
tonia@wellnessfullcircle.net
https://wellnessfullcircle.net/
Tonia is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker who obtained her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Master of Social Work degrees from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Full-time, she is a Clinical Assistant Professor at UNC-Chapel Hill School of Social Work. In that role, she focuses on training and curriculum development on topics such as primary and secondary trauma, adult and child mental health, and engaging families. Part-time, Tonia is the owner of Full Circle Wellness, an outpatient mental health practice. Tonia specializes in working with those who struggle with anxiety, depression, trauma, grief, body image and self-esteem. Tonia enjoys providing Christian counseling, as faith has been an important part of her own healing process. Tonia is a member of the Waccamaw Siouan Tribe and is a Revelation Wellness Instructor, which is a ministry that uses fitness as a tool to share the gospel.
Cheryl Harris, MSW, LCSW, CCTP
UNC Pembroke Counseling & Psychological Services
cheryl.harris@uncp.edu

Cheryl Harris is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and Outreach Coordinator at UNC Pembroke's Counseling and Psychological Services office. Before joining the Counseling and Psychological Services of UNCP, she worked as a Mental Health/Substance Use Disorder Care Coordinator and a Community Outreach Specialist with Eastpointe Managed Care Organization serving Robeson, Scotland, Bladen and Columbus Counties. Prior to that she worked as a Domestic Violence Survivor Advocate at the Southeastern Family Violence Center specializing in trauma treatment. Mrs. Harris has also worked as a Clinician with children, youth and families at the Baptist Children’s Home Odum Home campus in Pembroke. Mrs. Harris enjoys spending quality time with her family, friends, tribal community and church family. She holds a Bachelor’s degree in Social Work from UNCW, and a Masters of Social Work degree from East Carolina University. As a therapist she utilizes evidence based therapies, such as cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT) and solution focused therapy, with much emphasis on practicing mindfulness to reduce stress and improve relaxation. She is a member of the Waccamaw Siouan Tribe.

Timothy Hunt, MS, LCMHCS, LCAS, TAP, CSI, Level I PFT
Director of Personal Counseling Services, Sandhills Community College
huntt@sandhills.edu

Timothy N. Hunt is the knee baby son of Timmie Hunt from the New Bethel Methodist community in Fairmont and Jerlene Hunt who is from the Deep Branch community. He is married to Dr. Denise Hunt and they have 4 beautiful handfuls together (Samuel, Elijah, Malachi, and Zoe). He currently serves as the Director for Personal Counseling services at Sandhills Community College. He is currently completing his fourth year as a doctoral student in Counselor Education at North Carolina State University. He is a licensed clinical mental health counselor supervisor, a licensed clinical addictions specialist, a certified Transactional Analysis Practitioner, a Level 1 Personality Focused treatment therapist, and a Level 1 Guided Imagery and Music practitioner. He has worked in the field of Substance Abuse and Mental health for 20 years. Timothy attends Vertical Church at the Pembroke location and serves as one of their clinical counselors to help the body of Christ heal. He is a member of the Lumbee Tribe.
Natasha Jones Kinto, LCMHC, NCC, LCAS-A Clinical Counselor, Robeson Health Care Corporation
Natasha Jones Kinto is a Licensed Clinical Mental Health Counselor with Robeson Health Care Corporation. She has over fifteen years of management experience skills to work in both the private and government sectors. She earned an M.A. Ed. in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from The University of North Carolina at Pembroke, with a specialty in Addictions. She is a National Certified Counselor and a Licensed Professional Counselor Associate in North Carolina. She is a member of the Lumbee Tribe.

Rocky Locklear, LCMHC, NCC
Licensed Clinical Health Counselor, Scotland Family Counseling Center rocky@scotlandcounseling.org
Rocky Alexander Locklear is a nationally certified Licensed Clinical Mental Health Counselor. His career path has varied; he served as a fourth-grade math and science teacher for the Public Schools of Robeson County. While attending graduate school he worked with an academic support center to aids the students at the University of North Carolina at Pembroke. He was born, raised, and resides in Maxton, NC. He attends Cherokee Chapel Holiness Methodist Church where he teaches Sunday school to his peers every 4th Sunday, and youth every Wednesday night. Rocky received his Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education from the University of North Carolina at Pembroke in 2008. He returned to UNCP and in 2016 he completed his Masters of Education in Clinical Mental Health Counseling. He is a member of the Lumbee Tribe.