Tuesday November 16, 2021: To Be Well and Trans: Facilitating Wellness in Trans Communities
4:00pm-5:00pm via Webex
Presented by Whitney Akers, PhD, LCMHC, NCC, ACS; Sam Simon, PhD, LCMHC, NCC; & Shane Wasson, BS, BA
1 NBCC-Approved Contact Hour

Professional counselors have a responsibility to promote the wellness needs of diverse individuals. In this presentation, participants learn about the unique mental health needs of trans individuals. Participants learn practical application tools and ways to build strong therapeutic relationships with diverse clients.

Objectives:

- Participants will be able to identify three relationship considerations for working with trans individuals
- Participants will be able to identify three practical considerations for working with trans individuals

No Registration Required. CSI Membership is not Required.
Contact: Nicole Stargell (nicole.stargell@uncp.edu)

ACEP #4326, UNCP Department of Counseling, PO Box 1510 Pembroke NC 28372, nicole.stargell@uncp.edu, 910-521-6898, www.uncp.edu/departments/counseling

If you need an accommodation to access the program and/or program materials, please contact nicole.stargell@uncp.edu no later than five business days prior to the program. A good faith effort will be made for any request made less than five days in advance. This publication is available in alternative formats upon request. Please contact Accessibility Resource Center, D.F. Lowry Building, Room 107, or call 910.521.6695 for additional assistance.