University of North Carolina at Pembroke
and Brunswick Community College
Associate in Applied Science in Health and Fitness Science to Bachelor of Science in Exercise and Sport Science, Fitness Specialist Track
October 2023

I. Purpose

This Articulation Agreement is established by and between the University of North Carolina at Pembroke and Brunswick Community College and is applicable to students who complete the required hours for the Associate in Applied Science in Health and Fitness Science from Brunswick Community College and transfer to the University of North Carolina at Pembroke and major in Bachelor of Science in Exercise and Sport Science, Fitness Specialist Track. Transfers who have not completed the Associate in Applied Science in Health and Fitness Science degree will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

The University of North Carolina at Pembroke, located in Pembroke, NC, is a four-year public university and part of the University of North Carolina system. UNC Pembroke is regionally accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award Baccalaureate and Master's level degrees.

Brunswick Community College, located in Bolivia, NC, is a two-year public community college and part of the North Carolina Community College System. Brunswick Community College is regionally accredited by the Southern Association of College and Schools Commission on Colleges to award associate degrees, diplomas, and certificates.

II. Terms

The parties agree to the following:

1. This Articulation Agreement is effective as of the date of the executed document and shall continue until terminated. Both parties must approve amendments to this Articulation Agreement.
2. Either party may terminate this Articulation Agreement without cause upon 90 days written notice to the other party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may terminate this Articulation Agreement immediately in the event that participation under this Articulation Agreement may give rise to a violation of any requirement of federal or state law or regulation or the requirements of any accrediting agency having jurisdiction.
3. Any changes or additions to the agreement shall be made after consultation with the proper official of both institutions.
4. Brunswick Community College will ensure that qualified faculty members must teach all courses in the A.A.S. Health and Fitness Science program. The College will ensure that the staffing of the program and its courses meet the standards set forth in in The Principles of Accreditation:

Foundations for Quality Enhancement (6.2.a) by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges.

5. All students must meet UNC Pembroke transfer admissions requirements. The student must complete a UNC Pembroke transfer application. Final admission to UNC Pembroke is contingent upon the submission of an official Brunswick Community College transcript as well as official transcripts from any other college from which credits are used to meet graduation requirements prior to enrolling at UNC Pembroke.
6. All students will matriculate with all privileges and benefits available to students enrolled at UNC Pembroke including financial aid, student government leadership, academic transfer honors, and social organizations. Additionally, transfer pre-advising will be provided through the Transfer Transition and Engagement Office at UNC Pembroke for all students who declare their intention to transfer to UNC Pembroke. For more information, please contact the Transfer Transition and Engagement Office at (910) 775-4599.
7. If this agreement is revised or terminated, Brunswick Community College students that have matriculated at UNC Pembroke may continue until completion of the baccalaureate degree, contingent upon continuous enrollment. Students that do not remain continuously enrolled will be reviewed on an individual basis.
8. The parties grant each other a non-exclusive, non-transferrable license to use each other's trademarks and service marks in furtherance of the articulation coordination detailed herein or in a manner solely for the purposes of identifying and communicating the existence of the relationship to Brunswick Community College students and alumni. Use of trademarks, service marks, and logos will comply with the use policies of the originating institution. The parties shall discontinue the use of the licensed marks and return all files and materials containing the licensed marks supplied by the owner at termination or expiration of this Articulation Agreement. Neither party grants the other any interest in the other party's trademarks. Should either originating institution request, in writing, that a particular use of the originating institution's trademarks and/or service marks be discontinued, the non-originating institution shall cease and desist such use of the trademarks and/or service marks.
9. The parties hereto will have the relationship of independent contractors for all purposes. Each will have complete control over its own performance and the details of accomplishing its own obligations under this Articulation Agreement. In no event will the agents, representatives, or employees of one party be deemed to be agents, representatives, or employees of the other.
10. A duly authorized representative of each party may execute this Articulation Agreement, either by electronic or facsimile transmission, each of which will be considered an original.
11. UNC Pembroke will be responsible for reviewing and revising this agreement every 3 years. NOTE: The Director of Transfer Transition and Engagement will be responsible for revising all existing bilateral articulation agreements.
